

Coleslaw

Lindsay, Ontario

The Lady Hughes Chapter of the Imperial Order of the Daughters of the Empire (I.O.D.E.), Lindsay, was named for Lady Mary Hughes.

Formed in June 1943, members of the Lindsay chapter, while working under the chapter moto, 'We work well, who work willingly,' celebrated their tenth anniversary by compiling a list of their favourite recipes.

Lady Mary Hughes was born Mary Emily 'Nellie' Burk to farmer and Liberal MP for Durham West Harvey William Burk and Roby Williams in Durham County in 1852.

After marrying Sir Samuel Hughes in 1875, Lady Mary devoted her life to her three children, Mary Caroline 'Roby', Aileen 'Tweet' and General Garnet Burk Hughes. She also dedicated much of her time to teaching, community engagement and fundraising for causes that were close to her heart.

Recipe

The Lady Hughes Chapter,
I.O.D.E. Coronation Cook Book

Ingredients:

3 cups finally shredded green cabbage

2 cups finally shredded purple cabbage

1 cup finally shredded carrot

For the dressing, in a medium mixing bowl combine:

1/2 cup mayonnaise

1 tablespoon white vinegar

1/2 tablespoon cider

1/2 teaspoon celery seeds

Salt and pepper to taste

Refrigerate.