

Building Service Aide

The Building Services Aide provides essential housekeeping and cleaning services throughout the home, including linen distribution and the care of residents' personal clothing. These responsibilities are performed in compliance with health and safety regulations, infection prevention and control standards, quality management practices, and organizational guidelines.

As a valued member of the Victoria Manor team, the Building Services Aide plays a vital role in creating a clean, safe, and comfortable living environment that supports the well-being of our residents.
