By-law read a first, second and third time, and finally passed, this 24th day of September, 2024.

Doug Elmslie, Mayor

Cathie Ritchie, City Clerk

Schedule A to By-law 2024-179

Being a By-law to designate 19-21 King Street East, Village of Omemee in the City of Kawartha Lakes as being of cultural heritage value or interest.

Section 1: Description of Property

19-21 King Street East, Village of Omemee

Section 2: Location of Property

Located at the northeast corner of the intersection of King Street East and George Street North

Section 3: Legal Description

LOT 6N KING E GEORGE

Section 4: Location of Heritage Features

The primary heritage feature of the property is the historic mixed-use building facing onto King Street East and built to the southwest lot line of the property.

Section 5: Statement of Reasons for Designation

Design and Physical Value

19-21 King Street has design and physical value as a representative example of an Italianate commercial building in Omemee and one of the oldest extant commercial buildings in the village. Constructed after 1891, it displays typical characteristics of the Italianate commercial style which was the most popular style for downtown commercial architecture in the second half of the nineteenth century, including two-storey brick construction with a flat roof; an ornate cornice with decorative brickwork; and a retained Victorian storefront.

Historical and Associative Value

19-21 King Street East has historical and associative value as a long-standing pharmacy in Omemee, particularly as R.J. Mulligan's pharmacy and in its association with Mulligan, a prominent local businessman, politician and lay leader in the Methodist Church. Through its long-standing use, it yields information regarding the development of medical services in Omemee and the development of pharmacies in turn of the century communities. Constructed around 1891, it yields information regarding the reconstruction of Omemee after a series of fires in the early 1890s and the development of its businesses in the late nineteenth century. It has direct historical relationships with the history of commercial and economic development in Omemee as a well-known local business premise.

Contextual Value

19-21 King Street East has contextual value as part of the historic streetscape of downtown Omemee. It helps maintain and support the character of the commercial core of downtown Omemee as one of a range of nineteenth century commercial buildings extant along King Street East. It is one of a collection of late nineteenth century commercial buildings dating from the 1890s along the street and forms part of the historic streetwall along the north side of King Street. It is physically, visually and historically linked to its surroundings as part of the village's downtown streetscape.

Section 6: Heritage Attributes

The Reasons for Designation include the following heritage attributes and apply to all elevations, unless otherwise specified, and the roof including: all façades, entrances, windows, chimneys, and trim, together with construction materials of wood, brick, stone, stucco, concrete, plaster parging, metal, glazing, their related building techniques and landscape features.

Design and Physical Attributes

The design and physical attributes support the property's value as a representative example of late nineteenth century Italianate commercial architecture.

- Two-storey buff brick construction
- Flat roof
- Cornice with dog tooth coursing
- Fenestration including:
 - Sash windows
 - Voissoirs
 - Ground floor picture windows in storefront
- Signboard with cornice
- Victorian-style storefront with cornice
- Recessed entrance
- Set back residential portion including Classical entrance porch

Historical and Associative Attributes

The historical and associative attributes support the property's value as a pharmacy and in its role as part of the history of commercial development and the post-1890 reconstruction of Omeme.

- Historic and continuing use as a pharmacy
- Historic association with local figures Thomas Matchett, William Higinbotham and R.J. Mulligan
- Relationship to the history of commercial development in Omeme

- Relationship to other buildings erected as part of the post-1890 reconstruction of Omeme

Contextual Attributes

The contextual attributes of the property support its value as a contributing feature to the historic streetscape of downtown Omeme.

- Construction on the northwest corner of King Street East and George Street
- Construction to the lot line
- Views of the property along King Street East and George Street North
- Views from the property along King Street East and George Street North

Relationship to other Italianate commercial buildings in downtown Omeme
